JPA Seeks Applicants for Bicycle Advisory Committee

South Lake Tahoe, CA (January 11, 2016) - The South Lake Tahoe Recreation Facilities Joint Powers Authority (JPA) is seeking applicants to the Bicycle Advisory Committee required by Measure R. The Advisory Committee consists of seven (7) members. Advisory Committee meetings are publicly noticed and generally occur monthly.

There are three open positions for two year terms on the Bicycle Advisory Committee. The other four positions will expire in January 2017, and will be filled for two year terms at that time. The Bicycle Advisory Committee expects to continue to have work until year 2030.

The application deadline is 5pm on Friday, January 22, 2016.

The application can be obtained by mail or e-mail from the following:
Pick up applications from Ellen Palazzo, Assistant City Clerk, 1901 Airport Road, or call 530-542-6003 or e-mail eapalazzo@cityofslt.us. JPA staff, John Upton, at 916-389-0672, or e mail rkupton@aol.com. The District 5 Board of Supervisors office, at 530-621-6577, or e mail bosfive@edcgov.us. Supervisor's Assistant Judi McCallum will be pleased to assist you.

The JPA will meet to consider and appoint members to the Advisory Committees on Friday, January 29, 2016. The meeting will convene at 9am, at the South Lake Tahoe City Council Chambers, 1901 Airport Road, South Lake Tahoe, CA. The JPA may choose to interview applicants in public at the meeting. Applicants to the Advisory Committee are encouraged to attend the meeting, if at all possible. If unable to attend, applicants should advise JPA staff, John Upton, at 916-389-0672, or e mail rkupton@aol.com.

The JPA appreciates your considering appointment to the Measure R Bicycle Advisory Committee.
